

Breakfast at the beach

29/09/2015

Freddie Brincat OAM . . .

along with Jen Cousins (National Disability Coordination Officer), Glenn Hickling (Economic Growth and Investment Officer, City of Onkaparinga), together with successful job-seeker David Palmer presented at CBSs second Business Breakfast.

Community Bridging Services Consumer Nominee, Lukasz Wojniak acted as MC for the event.

CBS has a reputation for creativity and innovation, in supporting people to reach their full potential. CBS provides tailored and individualised services to ensure that we compliment and partner with employers to achieve the vest possible outcome for organisations and clients.

The Disability Friendly Scheme is a way for you and your business to acknowledge and support people with a disability.

Freddie Brincat, Executive Director of CBS said, "Our job-seekers are loyal and reliable potential employees. Our plan is to increase support to both clients and employers in a flexible way, creating more job opportunities, better access to education and training and increased social networks."

CBS is developing relationships with local businesses, schools and community organisations to increase job opportunities. Job-seekers are offered full on the job support, and employers are offered full wage subsidies to help businesses while clients are learning the job.
